Should School Ban Chocolate Milk ?

Should school ban chocolate milk, yes or no? Pick a side . I think school should not ban chocolate milk. My first is reason dairys would lose jobs.My second reason is kid will not get enough nutrients. My last reason is kids will go mad for chocolate milk.

One reason I believe they should not ban chocolate milk is that daires would lose profits. For example , people may lose their jobs. Also, the dairies may go bankrupt. In addition , the dairies may have to sell the milk at a high cost and less people would buy milk .

Another reason schools should not ban chocolate milk is that kids do not get enough nutrients. Water has minimal nutrients. Kids need nutrients. Chocolate milk has essential nutrients for kids such as vitamins A,C,D and calcium.

The final reason that schools should not ban chocolate milk is because kids will be upset. Specifically , children might not like white milk or strawberry milk and they might have different taste bug.

So what side are you going to pick , ban chocolate milk or don't ban chocolate milk?
